

HORROR OF THE SEA CAUSED BY FIRE

SIXTEEN PERSONS BURNED TO DEATH.

Passengers and Sailors of the Steamship Leona Die in the Steerage—Cargo of Cotton Bursts Out Into Flames—All Escape is Cut Off—The List of Victims.

New York, May 10.—The Mallory line steamer Leona, which left her pier on Saturday, bound for Galveston, took fire at sea, put back and arrived in port Sunday night with sixteen corpses on board.

The dead were thirteen steerage passengers and three members of the crew, who succumbed to a terrible fire which occurred off the Delaware capes at an early hour Sunday morning.

The horror of the story can hardly be told. Those who are dead were penned up below decks, and although frantic efforts were made by the officers of the vessel to save them, the fire had gained such terrible headway before the danger was discovered that all escape was cut off.

The steamer carried in her cargo many bales of cotton. It is not certain how the fire originated, but when it was discovered it burst forth with such fury that it was impossible to reach the steerage. Even then the steerage passengers apparently were unmindful of the danger, else the smoke and flames would not have reached them.

The saloon passengers were first aroused, and in such a manner as to occasion little alarm. When it became apparent that the fire had cut off the steerage the captain and his men poured great quantities of water down the ventilator, and the most frantic effort was made for the escape of those penned up. In this way eight of the steerage passengers made their escape.

Leona left her pier Saturday at 3 o'clock p. m., with eleven saloon passengers and many in the steerage. She carried a general cargo of merchandise. Capt. Wilder was in command, with First Mate Wallace and Second Mate Sweeney assisting. The chief engineer was Taylor, with three assistants, and a crew of about seventy-five men, including firemen and deck hands.

Among the passengers were S. V. Winslow of Rutherford, N. J. On his return to this city Mr. Winslow told the following graphic story of the fire: "We left the pier at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon with clear skies and beautiful weather. Sandy Hook was passed, and the lights of the Jersey shore were still visible when we went to bed. By the time we passed Barnegat light, at 10 o'clock, all the passengers were in bed. The passengers in the steerage had also retired to their bunks. The watch going off at 12 o'clock reported everything well. There was no suspicion of any fire or other trouble. The sea was very smooth and there was no wind. The moon was shining brightly.

First Mate Wallace was pacing the bridge about 2 a. m. when he thought he smelled smoke coming from the fore-castle. He went down the forward to the companion way and opened the door to the steerage. The moment he did this there was a burst of flame, which burned his face.

"Wallace turned and ran on deck and cried the alarm of fire to the forward watch, telling him to wake the steward and have all the passengers aroused as quickly as possible, without creating any excitement. The steward did this in a quiet manner, going to each state-room and waking the occupants.

"He said in calm tones that there was a slight fire in forward part of the ship, and it might be advisable for the passengers to get their things together. It might be possible, he added, that the ship would eventually have to be abandoned.

"Capt. Wilder rushed on deck at the first alarm, clad only in an undershirt and trousers. He assumed command and at once ordered the crew to rescue the steerage passengers. On the same deck with the steerage, on the port side of the ship, a large quantity of cotton bagging was stored, separated from the steerage passengers by a board partition.

"The main deck was almost completely filled with freight, cutting off all exit from the steerage to the after-part of the ship. The only out from the steerage was up the forward companionway.

"The crew, on the captain's orders, rushed for the companionway and attempted to descend. They were driven back by dense volumes of smoke, and names quickly followed. The smoke and flames also came up through the ventilators, and it was apparent to all who were on deck that below decks was a roaring furnace.

"Then it dawned on the officers and crew that the unfortunates in the steerage were probably burning to death. Capt. Wilder saw his crew driven back from the companionway and the realization of the horror below made him desperate.

"He rushed to the stairs and boldly attempted to go below. He did not get down more than half a dozen steps when the increasing clouds of smoke and the flames shooting up around him drove him on deck.

"He stepped back to the shelter of the pilot house. His face was scorched. His eyebrows were burned away. He stood there dazed and overcome for a moment. Then he exclaimed: 'No man can go through that and come out alive.'

"I tried to peer through the smoke to see if the steerage passengers were running around below, and I hoped that we would be able to reach them in some way. I listened for sounds, but could hear nothing save the roar of the flames as they grew steadily in volume below and rolled round and round in the narrow quarters. There was not a scream, not a shriek, no signs of life below."

AS THE SENATORS VOTE.

Tariff Bill Will Be Molded in the Upper House.

Washington, May 10.—Senators who reconstructed the tariff bill assert that it has the president's approval in its amended form and they do not expect that the threats of Speaker Reed and other house leaders against the measure can be executed.

The senatorial fathers opine that when the bill has once passed the senate the house, if not ready to yield at once, will eventually surrender, just as the democratic house did when the present tariff law was passed.

Some of the provisions of the senate bill suit many of the house members better than did those of the Dingley bill and, it is said, several of the changes were made at the request or suggestion of house members. A number of them, finding they could not obtain all they wanted from the house autocrats, presented their claims to the senate committee, the members of which, realizing that the house has yet to pass upon their work, were willing to give them a respectful hearing. This is especially true of the duty on hides.

The western republicans in the house are as much interested in this matter as are the western senators. The former, therefore, openly declare if the ways and means committee members attempt to fight the provision they will fight the ways and means committee.

It is not supposed the house conferees will at once agree to the senate bill and it is to be anticipated in a number of instances the senate will yield to the house, but in all important matters it may be considered pretty certain the senate will ultimately have its own way.

Senator Hanna expressed the opinion to a friend that congress would probably not adjourn before Aug. 1.

Go Through a Bridge.

Pueblo, Col., May 10.—Passenger train No. 5 on the Santa Fe railway from the east, due here at 7 o'clock Saturday, went through the bridge over the Arkansas river at Lamar, 115 miles east of here, at 3 o'clock this morning. The engine, mail car, baggage car, smoker and chair all went into the river, two sleepers only remaining on the track.

Engineer John Madigan had one rib broken. He stuck to his post. Two tramps, names unknown, were stealing a ride on the pilot. One had an arm and the other a leg broken. Nobody else was injured. A flood caused by a heavy rain had undermined the foundations of the bridge.

Fail Victims to Cannibals.

Astoria, Ore., May 10.—According to private advice received here F. M. B. Lichtenberg, a young Englishman, who arrived in this city about two years ago, and left a year later, has met a horrible fate at the hands of cannibals in the South Sea islands. He, with another man, was taken prisoner, killed and eaten by the tribes of the islands. The story gained circulation through a half-civilized native, who witnessed the awful feast. Lichtenberg belonged to a prominent London family. His father is said to be wealthy.

Gov. Taylor Will Resign.

Nashville, Tenn., May 10.—While Gov. Taylor refuses to talk for publication concerning the reports that he has decided to resign, and that about October he will cease to be governor, it is known that he has so decided and that he told several gentlemen that the reports are correct. About October it is his intention to resign, and it is also certain that he will again go upon the lecture platform.

Monetary Commission Sails.

New York, May 10.—Vice-President Adlai E. Stevenson, Gen. C. J. Payne and Senator E. O. Wolcott, who were recently appointed by President McKinley as a commission to confer with the heads of European governments relative to the holding of an international bimetallic conference, sailed for Havre on the French liner La Touraine Saturday.

GREECE SATISFIED WITH THE TERMS

THE POWERS ARE ASKED TO GIVE HELP.

Prospect of an Early Cessation of the War—Possibility of More Fighting at Domokos—The Turks Easily Capture Volo—The Retreat Was Nothing But a Panic.

Athens, May 10.—The correspondent of the Associated Press learns, on the very best authority, that Greece has made a written application to the powers through their representatives at Athens with a view to obtaining mediation. All the representatives have promised in their replies to use their best offices, except the German minister, who has merely acknowledged the receipt of the note from the cabinet.

The porte is inclined to support the powers, with a view to the facilitation of negotiations, but it declines to consent to an armistice, on the ground that this would enable Greece to reorganize her forces.

As a matter of fact, Turkey continues to send troops from Salonica homeward, and it is probable that Osman Pasha has returned to Constantinople from Salonica. In view of both facts it may be assumed that nothing serious is expected, but the continuance of a state of war is regarded as the very best means of hastening the efforts of diplomacy.

Without doubt hopes have been raised in Turkey that the Ottoman government might annex Thessaly and restore the old frontier of 1881, but the sultan is not inclined to risk such a step. On the contrary, he opposes it uncompromisingly, and will not yield to the pressure of the war party at Constantinople. He will be satisfied with a reasonable indemnity and a slight rectification of the eastern Thessalian frontier, such a one as would give Turkey several strategic positions in the vicinity of Nezeros.

A dispatch from Lamia, dated Saturday, says that Crown Prince Constantine is still at Domokos and that Gen. Smolenski is at Almyros. Ricotti Garibaldi and the Italian volunteers have arrived at Almyros. The exodus of inhabitants from Domokos, Lamia and the surrounding country continues. Greek torpedo boats still patrol the gulf of Volo. It is probable that more fighting will occur at Domokos. The telegraph is working at Domokos, and the latest dispatch from that point says that the Turks are half way between Pharsala and Domokos, and are believed to be planning an attack upon the latter. The Turks do no molest inhabitants of the villages they have occupied, but they have burned houses and plundered several churches at Pharsala.

A dispatch from Domokos says the Turkish advance posts have reached Skirmetzi, and that the Turks are moving forward in considerable force from Pharsala on the Domokos-Almyros line, with a view of cutting off Gen. Smolenski. According to the dispatch it is reported at Domokos that the Turks have already come into contact with Gen. Smolenski's brigade.

The Greek western squadron has rescued large numbers of women and children from villages along the Epirus coast threatened by the Turks.

In the course of an interview Col. Vassos said: "The union between Crete and Greece is now an actual fact and nothing is lacking but the consent of Europe. The foreign admirals recently asked my authority to advance their troops in Crete beyond the zone previously occupied. The powers may do what they like. The union of Crete and Greece is inevitable and a necessity."

It is reported in official circles that Queen Olga has sent a telegram to the czar soliciting the mediation of Russia.

The Turks have completely occupied and burned Velestino. At 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening the defeat of the Greeks was complete and the pass to Volo open to the Turks. The searchlights of the warships on the bay flashing up the mountain sides were of great assistance to the retreating Greeks, showing the road through the intense darkness. Over a dozen cannons were abandoned, and captured by the Turks. Two hundred wounded soldiers were taken to Volo. Many wounded were left on the field. It is impossible to estimate the number of the killed.

Gen. Smolenski's shattered army was cut in two. The left wing retired to Almyros. What was left of the right wing moved toward Volo, broken and demoralized. The retreat across the mountains was almost as bad as the panic which resulted in the change of base from Tynavos to Volo.

Kansas Abolishes Prison Stripes. Lansing, Kas., May 10.—The Board of Directors of the State Penitentiary has announced to the convicts that the regulation striped uniforms will be discarded, beginning on the 4th of July. The new garb of the convicts is to be of gray material.

Train Robber Breaks Jail.

Prescott, Arizona, May 10.—"Jim" Parker, the notorious train robber, and two other desperadoes, escaped from jail here Sunday night, wounding the jailer and district attorney.

INDIANA VETERANS NOW IN SESSION

GALA WEEK FOR THE OLD SOLDIERS.

Ten Thousand Visitors Expected at the Annual Encampment at Richmond—Ex-President Harrison Expected to be Present—City is in Gala Attire in Visitors' Honor.

Richmond, Ind., May 10.—Ten thousand visitors are expected in this city this week to attend the eighteenth annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, department of Indiana, which will open Tuesday and continue through Wednesday and Thursday. In connection with the encampment will be held three other state meetings—the fourteenth annual convention of the Woman's Relief Corps, the fourth annual convention of the Ladies of the G. A. R. and the annual meeting of the Loyal Legion.

The reports received up to this time indicate that 6,000 members of the G. A. R. and W. R. C. alone will be present. If the other estimates are correct the attendance will be the largest on record. This will be largely due to the exceedingly low railroad rate, all the roads in the state having granted a fare of 1 cent a mile.

Aside from renewing acquaintances and swapping stories of the battle field and camp fire, there will be nothing done Tuesday until evening.

The convention work proper will begin Wednesday morning, when all the bodies except the Loyal Legion will hold business sessions. In the afternoon the annual parade will be the chief event, while the night will be devoted to camp fires. General Lew Wallace and Governor Mount will be among the chief camp fire speakers, while Judge D. W. Comstock of this city and Past Department Commander A. O. Marsh of Winchester and James Johnson of Rockville will preside. A feature at each camp fire will be the rendering of patriotic songs.

Business sessions of all the organizations will take up the closing day, with the banquet of the Loyal Legion at night as a fitting climax. This will be the occasion of a gathering of many men of national note. The one of chief prominence will be ex-President Harrison in case he finds it will be possible for him to attend. Other speakers will be Governor Mount, Past National Commander Ivan N. Walker of Indianapolis and General Lew Wallace.

The membership of the four organizations is between 25,000 and 30,000. Of this number the G. A. R. has about 22,000, the W. R. C. 6,000, the Ladies of the G. A. R. 300, and the Loyal Legion 300.

There will be a spirited contest for the position of commander of the G. A. R. There are seven candidates for the place—Major Irvin Robbins of Indianapolis, Captain B. W. Campbell of Anderson, Colonel John W. Hedington of Portland, W. D. McCullough of Brazil, John A. Swoveland of Tipton, J. S. Dodge of Elkhart and J. H. Cisney of Warsaw.

Three cities will ask for the next encampment. They are Terre Haute, Marion and Columbus.

It is expected that General Wallace will be re-elected commander of the Loyal Legion, a position he has held since its organization was effected in Indiana.

At some point in the business sessions of the G. A. R. a silver service will be presented to Past National Commander Walker from the national organization. Major J. S. Clarkson, the present commander-in-chief, will be present with his staff, and Governor Mount will be accompanied by his staff of between thirty and forty.

Richmond has made elaborate preparations to entertain her visitors, and a feature will be the decorations.

Gen. Frank Wheaton Retired.

Denver, Col., May 10.—Brigadier and Brevet Major General Frank Wheaton retired from service in the United States army Saturday, having reached the age of 63 years, of which time 47 years have been spent in the service. Gen. Wheaton in August will sail for Europe, where he will spend the next two years. Gen. Otis is the successor of Gen. Wheaton.

Death of Judge Ewing.

Pittsburg, Pa., May 10.—Judge Thomas Ewing died Sunday night of pneumonia, after an illness of only four days. He was 70 years old, and had been on the bench for twenty-three years. He was a member of the state constitutional convention in 1873, which promulgated Pennsylvania's present constitution, and has been prominent in legal circles for many years.

Election Riots in Spain.

Madrid, May 10.—Serious disorders have broken out in several places in connection with the municipal elections now in progress. At Bilbao the socialists have made violent demonstrations and at Linares a liberal voter has been killed.

Will Claim the Spoils.

London, May 10.—A special to the Times from Constantinople says: "Turkey will certainly claim a fair allowance of the rights of a victor, and in this claim she will be supported by Russia and Germany."

TURNERS RECEIVE PRIZES. VILLAGE WIPED OUT BY RAGING FLAMES

Rain Interferes with the Last Day's Program at St. Louis.

St. Louis, Mo., May 10.—The twenty-seventh national festival of the North American Gymnastic Union, or Turnerbund, Sunday closed a most successful meeting of four days, and prizes were awarded to the victors. Like these given by King George of Greece, to the successful competitors in the Olympian games at Athens last year, they consisted of laurel wreaths. The awards were made at Liedercranz hall, in the presence of an immense crowd of the disciples of Jahn. Rain prevailed at the fair grounds, but in spite of showers there were 25,000 men, women and children out to see the sights.

It had been expected to make this the banner day of the festival, but the wet weather caused a curtailment of the program. The mass exercises had to be abandoned, but the competitors in field sports, groups one and two, were able to finish. The only event not completed was the 100-yard class races. In these races fifty-two classes out of several hundred here were unable to run their men because of the wet grounds. In every other respect the festival has been a success.

Important Decision Expected Today.

Washington, May 10.—A decision of importance to railroads is expected in the Supreme Court today. The issue is whether the commission having decided that a rate is unreasonable may say further what is reasonable. The test case was instituted by the commercial bodies of Chicago and Cincinnati against the Queen & Crescent system. Railroad men esteem the issue second in importance only to the recent opinion which applied the antitrust principle to rate associations, and they express strong confidence that the decision will sustain their side of the question.

Rules Against the Strikers.

Cleveland, O., May 10.—A blow to the strikers of the Consolidated Steel Company was delivered by Judge Sage of the United States Circuit Court Saturday morning. He allowed the temporary injunction against them to stand at the conclusion of an exhaustive opinion. Judge Sage maintained that the proof was conclusive that violence had been done the men in the employ of the company. He held that if the strikers were not actually engaged in violent acts they were at least the ruling spirits of them.

STOCK AND BUSINESS PROPERTY ARE CONSUMED.

Loss Will be About $5,000 and is Partially Covered by Insurance—Brilliant Livery Barn Burns and Eight Head of Horses are Roasted—Pouch Not Caught.

Galesville, Wis., May 10.—[Special]—Fire wiped out the little village of Marshfield near here, last night. Among the buildings burned are Will Brothers, saloon and dance hall, the postoffice and the Luce-Leith store. The teleph office was also destroyed and the loss will aggregate about $5,000, partially insured.

Brilliant, Wis., May 10.—[Special]—Fire destroyed Davis & Williams livery barn last night, and eight horses were roasted to death. The loss will be about $3,000.

Funeral of Pouch's Victims

Milwaukee, Wis., May 10.—The funeral of Alexander Harris, the farmer who was murdered by William Pouch early Friday morning, took place Sunday at Waukesha. Services were held in the Baptist Church at Prospect, a hamlet near the farmhouse. The church was filled with farmers and their families, who came from miles around. The other victims—Mrs. Harris, Helen Verbach and Nelson McHolt—are in the same condition. All may die of their wounds, and yet each has a chance of recovery.

Two days have passed since the murder, but no substantial clue has been found to indicate the whereabouts of the murderer. The authorities are making a vigorous hunt, and every effort will be made to run him down. The peculiar atrocity of the deed has worked the farmers of Waukesha County up to such a pitch that there will be serious danger of a lynching even should it be many days before Pouch is brought into the county.

Madison, Wis., May 10.—Gov. Scofield Saturday issued a proclamation offering a reward of $200 for the arrest and conviction of William Pouch, the Waukesha county murderer. The governor has also offered a reward of $200 for the arrest and conviction of the tramp who stabbed and killed Fred Meyers in a fight in Marshfield Tuesday night.

Insurance Statistics of Wisconsin. Madison, Wis., May 10.—Insurance Commissioner Fricke's report on fire and marine companies shows that the amount of insurance written in Wisconsin for 1896 by stock and mutual companies was $253,963,018. The ratio of losses to premiums was 38.28, while in 1895 the ratio was 72.33.

RELIGION AND SHOOTING.

Four Men Fall Victims to the Combination at Lowell, Ark.

Little Rock, Ark., May 10.—At Lowell, Ark., Sunday, Mrs. Duerling shot and wounded E. Bryant of Lowell and three citizens of Springdale, whose names are not known. The shooting was the result of religious excitement, caused by a woman known as Mrs. Benedict, who has been holding a series of "holiness meetings" in the neighborhood. Mrs. Benedict gathered about her twenty converts, among them Mrs. Duerling, who deserted her husband. Citizens of Springdale decided to drive them out of the county.

The posse followed Mrs. Benedict and Mrs. Duerling to a house at Lowell, where the women fortified themselves, and when the men arrived Mrs. Duerling opened fire on them with a revolver. Mrs. Duerling was arrested, charged with attempted murder.

War Ship Sent to Honduras.

Washington, May 10.—The interests of United States citizens at Puerto Cortez, the seat of the revolution now in progress in Honduras, will be looked after by the United States cruiser Marblehead. The vessel is now on her way there from Key West, orders having been given her commander to proceed at once. These orders were issued at the request of the state department officials, who felt that the United States should be represented in those waters by a warship, so that if occasion should arise there might be no delay in affording the necessary protection to citizens of this government.

Orders Him to Hawaii.

Tacoma, Wash., May 10.—The Northern Pacific steamer Pelican, from the orient, brings advice that Count Okuma, Japanese minister of foreign affairs, has instructed the Japanese minister at Washington to dispatch the American adviser of the Japanese legation in the United States, D. W. Stevens, to Hawaii at once to aid in settling the Hawaiian trouble. Mr. Shimaru, Japanese representative at Honolulu, is conducting negotiations with the Hawaiian government.

Says Dock Is Uninjured.

San Francisco, Cal., May 10.—Commander W. H. Whiting, U. S. N., who is in command of the Port Orchard dock, arrived from the north yesterday with his wife and children. When seen last night Commander Whiting denied the story recently published concerning the rumored sinking of the dry dock under the weight of the battleship Oregon.

PLEADS FOR WORK AGAINST SALOONS

LIQUOR TARIFF.

Says Temperance Hangers Will be But a Waste of Breath Until Some Practical Plan is Adopted—Good Templars Attend the Service in a Body—In Other Churches.

MEMBERS of People's Lodge No. 460 Independent Order Good Templars, attended All Souls church in a body Sunday evening to listen to a temperance sermon. In speaking of "The Saloon Problem in Janesville" Rev. Mr. Southworth said:

"We all agree that the saloon is a moral evil. It is not at all necessary for me to point out the bad effects of the saloon. And I have yet to find the man or woman who has the face to publicly claim that the saloon is productive of any good results.

"We are all agreed I say, on the essential point that the public bar—the open saloon (licensed or not-licensed) is a demoralizing influence in the community. It is one of the mad dogs of our modern high strung civilization. And the mad dog is loose—and its fangs are tearing at the life and the happiness and the moral sanity of thousands of people—its poison is finding its way through the fathers and mothers into the blood and nerve of the yet unborn children. And while this mad dog runs wild we advocates of temperance discuss the various theories that have been devised for the killing of mad dogs.

"For my part I would like to have a go at the dog himself, and leave a brick at any rate if I can't fire a gun.

Opposition Has No Effective.

"As matters now stand the saloons have nothing to fear from the attacks of those who call themselves the enemies of the saloon. So far we have done nothing to disturb the most outrageous law breakers in the ring. Judging from past experience they know that we disagree so widely as to ways and means that nothing will come of our anti-saloon agitation.

"And this is the most serious difficulty that stands in the way of practical temperance reform in Janesville. Those who see and feel the awful curse of intemperance are in such hopeless disagreement as to what ought to be done that nothing at all is likely to be done.

"The good people, the moral and conscientious people, the church people are so afraid of each other's heresies that they will not unite heartily even for such work as this. Our sectarianism creates such social disharmony that no combined and spirited movement against the common enemy can be made. Until this difficulty is overcome I see little hope of success.

Another barrier that must be removed before the saloons can be successfully opposed, is the mercenary spirit of our citizens. The only argument in defense of the saloon that I have heard is that it brings trade to Janesville. Farmers come with their produce to sell or exchange for merchandise, who would go elsewhere if there were no saloons here. The fact that we have fifty smiling, hearty hospitable gin-peddlers ready to extend the friendly hand and make them feel at home seems to have tremendous weight with our agricultural neighbors. And I do hope they have wit enough to appreciate the compliment.

Tax-Payers Shirk Duty.

"Then, too, our tax-payers are so ambitious to shirk their share of the public burden that they welcome the license fees as a veritable God-send. The city must have the income from the saloons in order that more money may be appropriated to the support of our public schools. Our children are to be educated by the profits of the liquor traffic. We respectable citizens who never patronize the saloon are glad to have it go on because it helps to furnish public funds for the education of our children.

"Such is the sophistry with which hundreds of Janesville citizens cloak their souls. So long as we love a dollar or two in our pocket more than we love the moral purity and strength of our neighbors; so long as we are willing to be benefitted by trading on the low appetites of our fellow men, the saloon will continue to receive the support of the majority of our voters.

"I have very little respect for the man who stands behind the bar selling this 'liquid damnation' to his fellow-man as a means of livelihood; but in my estimation bad as the saloon-keeper is, he is something of an angel compared to the respectable citizen who sneaks into the voting booth and gives his secret endorsement to the saloon because (as he thinks) it lowers the tax-rate a few cents on the thousand. Even if it were true that business is brisker and taxes are lower because of the saloon (I do not believe it is true, but even if it were) no more despicable motive for the support of such an institution could be found.

"Here are the two most serious hindrances to any successful opposition to the saloon. First, the deep prejudices and preferences by which the moral and spiritual forces of the community are divided; and second, the mercenary spirit of our citizens, the willingness to take advantage of other people's weakness for the sake of private gain."

In closing, Rev. Mr. Southworth advocated a "forward movement" that would show the mayor, the council, and the police, that they would have the support of the people in doing their duty. Until some plan of work was adopted, he said, temperance harrangues would be a waste of breath.

REV. DR. MARVIN G. HODGE.

He Preaches From a Text Found in Titus 2:14.

At the Baptist church Dr. Hodge Hodge took his text in Titus 2:14. Paul is remarkable in that he could summarize the great truths of the gospel. Notice that in this one verse many things are told. 1st, The price that was paid for our redemption. "He gave himself." Moses gave himself for his people, but Christ gave much more than Moses.

Many others have given themselves for a good purpose, but they have never given themselves to the cross of calvary.

2nd, See with what intent he gave himself, "that he might redeem us from all iniquity." He saves us from the wrath of an offended God but he goes back farther and saves us from the cause of the indignation. He saves us from iniquity. The sinners heart must be changed. The whole man must be made anew. Every evil spirit must be driven out; Christ's work is a thorough work.

3d, Notice that Christ redeemed us to himself a peculiar body of people. He would have them peculiar in their love of the truth their good works, etc. The process of refining may be long and tedious, but it brings us out of the blackness of sin and makes us clean and sure in all things.

4. Note that the verse is closed by showing that Christ's redeemed one's must be "zealous in good works. A Christian ought not to be satisfied with being as good as the wordling, but ought to be zealous in good works. Show your faith by your works. The beginning of a christian life is simple but it does not remain so, but goes on and develops in strength and usefulness. It is more than a sentiment it is a life, a practical useful life.

Let us learn the true structure of christian life. It all centers about Christ. Let us be his helpers in the noble work of redemption.

Miss Ora Smith led the Y. P. S. C. E. meeting the subject was "Why I Love Jesus." It was an interesting session.

The Evening Service

In the evening the doctor's text was Matthew 4:7, "Thou Shalt Not Tempt the Lord Thy God." Christ is now to openly enter upon his life work. Satan comes to tempt him that he might not accomplish his great work. When we begin a real earnest work for God, we must expect temptation. This text is Christ's reply to Satan's second temptation. This does not mean those places where duty calls. God will always care for us when in the path of duty.

We should not place ourselves in dangerous places, when duty does not call us there. Daniel did not go into the lion's den when duty did not call, but he went when God said go, and he was cared for.

The crusaders tempted God by carrying on the crusades when God had not called them to that work. It was a failure.

We should use the ordinary means placed in our way. We can not pray God to care for our son, and then lead him into evil ways or subject him to evil influences.

Lot pitched his tent towards Sodom without considering the evil influences that would surround them, and he reaped bitter results. A young christian cannot grow in grace by associating with the worldly. It is tempting God.

We need to consider all of our surroundings and try to be consistent in our every day life.

"Tempt not the Lord, thy God."

REV. ROBERT C. DENISON.

Preached on "The Signs of The Coming Kingdom."

At the Congregational church the pastor, Rev. Robert C. Denison, spoke on "The Signs of the Coming Kingdom."

The idea of the coming kingdom brings us first to the thought of God, the eternal worker. We rest, we give up in sickness or death, but things do not stop, because God works always. The kingdom of God is coming, but it is not now. Some think that the end is soon, that Christ may be expected soon to come, saying: "The kingdom is perfected, the work is done." But the simple answer to this is that the work is not done. Three-fourths of the globe today are heathen or semi-civilized and even after centuries of preaching and praying the drunkard still staggers on our streets and in our nominally christian country millions of lives are lived away from God. The perfect coming of his kingdom in which every member shall be born anew and changed to righteousness of character is yet afar off. But if it has not come there are signs of its continually coming. In every department of life we are growing out of diversity into unity. The world is becoming more and more one in its moral judgments. Sympathy for suffering reaches 'round the world. India's wheat crop fails—Chicago merchants give money to relieve it; Armenians are murdered—Mr. Gladstone protests in Liverpool. The outlook for international peace is another sign of unity in modern life. Another is that the divisions are becoming less jealous. The churches are trying to unite for practical ends.

The extremes in social life are becoming interested in trying to solve the problems of the poor. Growing intelligence is a sign of the coming kingdom; education is more general than ever before; information increases. Evil's power of secrecy grows less, and sin's best friend is secrecy. Another sign that the kingdom comes

REMOVED FROM A WAREHOUSE
AT BELOIT.

Substantially Built Cases, Well Filled, Sent From Washington to Beloit and Stored—After the Charges Against Gen. Doe Were Made the Boxes Were Removed.

The Milwaukee Sentinel printed the following article in the Sunday issue:

"A consignment of boxes sent from Washington, D. C., to General Joseph B. Doe, Beloit, Wis., in care of P. H. Crahen, have mysteriously disappeared from P. H. Crahen's warehouse in Beloit, since the publication of the dispatch from New York, dated May 2, in which it was said General Doe had been charged with appropriating government property to his own use.

"The boxes arrived in Beloit in March, and were on the 27th and 29th of that month, hauled by George Merrill, an expressman, from the Northwestern freight depot to the Crahen warehouse. Merrill says that there were between twelve and fifteen boxes, that they were of uniform size and make, and each had a rope handle at either end. At the time he was hauling the boxes to the warehouse he was also engaged to take six or eight boxes a little larger, stained in imitation of black walnut, and provided with iron handles, from the freight depot to the residence of Mrs. Arthur Brittan, where he deposited them in the basement.

"The boxes at the warehouse were there as late as last Tuesday, but have since disappeared, and no one about the premises seems to know what has become of them. There are two boxes in the warehouse carrying the address given above—one an ordinary government packing box and the other evidently a covering for some piece of furniture. The latter is about eight feet long, three feet wide and about one foot deep, the bottom being left open with the exception of cross pieces from four to six inches apart.

"P. H. Crahen, the owner of the warehouse, has been away from Beloit for a number of days, and could not be found. The foreman in charge Samuel Opeley, when asked in regard to the boxes, at first denied all knowledge of having seen them at the warehouse, but in the course of his conversation, admitted that he had seen them, but did not know that they had been taken away.

"The single packing box that remains in the warehouse is very light, and would not weigh over seventy-five pounds.

Boxes Came From Washington.

"The report at Beloit was that George H. Cram, a merchant who is also related to Mrs. Doe, had hired a place for the storage of the goods at the Crahen warehouse, but this he emphatically denies. He says that he engaged George Merrill at the solicitation of Mrs. Doe, to haul the goods to the warehouse and to the residence of Mrs. Brittan, and that this is all that he knows about the transaction. There are various reports current as to what has become of the boxes that were in the warehouse. Some of the knowing ones express the opinion that they have been moved to Janesville, but there is nothing to show this to have been the case. It also was said the boxes were brought from Washington to Chicago as government freight and reshipped from that point as the private property of General Doe. This report is disproved by the statement of E. A. Howell, the agent of Northwestern railroad at Beloit, who says the goods were billed through from Washington, and that no government way bill accompanied them. The only thing certain is that the goods were received in Beloit, were stored in the warehouse, and have since mysteriously disappeared, and the gossips of the little city don't know where they have gone to.

Mrs. Doe Has No Intention.

"It is evident that Mrs. Doe is as innocent of the whereabouts of the goods as any one. She said: 'Some boxes came here filled with property belonging to General Doe and other members of the family and I had some of them sent to the warehouse and the remainder brought to this house, where they were stored away in the basement. I suppose the goods are still in the warehouse; I know nothing about their being removed.'

"What is known about Beloit as the British house, is the summer residence of Arthur Brittan, a Chicago capitalist. It is one of the handsomest residences in Beloit, near the Northwestern passenger station. It is occupied by the family during the summer months, and is closed the remainder of the year. Mrs. Brittan is Gen. Doe's mother-in-law, and until the general concludes to set up an establishment of his own in Milwaukee, which he has decided to do after the summer is over.

Miss Brittan Explains.

"It was said that Mrs. Doe was completely unnerved by the assault that had been made upon her husband by the press dispatches. This, however, did not prevent her from taking a spin on her wheel, in which exercise she was engaged when a Sentinel representative called and Miss Carrie Brittan answered for her. 'It is preposterous even to think that Gen. Doe would steal a few boxes of government property. But then he is a politician and a fighter and I suppose he provokes assaults of this kind. He is never so happy as when he is fighting. He is a natural born lawyer. These boxes contain clothing and bric-a-brac. General

Doe rented a furnished house in Washington a year ago this last winter, and we all went down there and lived with him. Of course the house was furnished, but there are a great many little articles you want that are not forthcoming in a furnished house, and these we had to buy. Then there is our clothing. I may say that we are extravagant in the matter of clothing. We have a garret full of it up stairs now. We think we will make it over, but somehow we just don't do it. I never pretend to wear my fine clothes here in Beloit. The boxes so far as I know are filled with clothing, and General Doe's private property such as books and things of that sort. We went last summer from Washington to the seashore and rented a cottage, and I do not think that the boxes that have been sent here need cause any alarm. No, I don't read the newspapers; I just hate them.'

"Miss Brittan explained how it was that the boxes in which this property had been shipped from Washington were of a uniform style, and closely resembled army chests, by saying that the war department had its own carpenters, who were not always engaged on government work, and occasionally did little jobs for the officers.

Whitton Bought His Goods

"At Janesville, Richard J. Whitton has a choice lot of furniture on storage in a back room of a shoe company in which he was at one time a stockholder. Mr. Whitton was Gen. Doe's private secretary and later at the head of the Supply division of the War department. He expresses his willingness to allow any one to examine his property in store, provided they will repack it as well as they find it. He declares he bought the goods with the money paid him as a salary, and that as soon as he finds a location he will put it into service. Mr. Whitton says: 'I saved the government $47,000 last year, and will save it more this year, if my successor follows out my plans, and this is the reward I receive for it. There is no truth in these reports; they are all bosh.'

is seen in the increase of the social feeling; a man's rights are of less importance than his right relations to his fellows. We are learning that to love one's neighbor is quite as important as to increase one's own possessions. Last is the inner sign. The kingdom of heaven comes first when a man's heart changes. From a changed inner life it proceeds to a changed public life. The question does the world grow better, is answered by the question, do you better yourself? If you have more faith, hope and love, then the world has more and the kingdom comes.

Elkhorn Pastor Preached at Court Street M. E. Church.

The pulpit at Court Street M. E. church was occupied yesterday by Rev. Mr. Woodside, of Elkhorn. His topic in the morning was "Heaven." The text being a verse of the 87th psalm. "Glorious things of thee are spoken, oh city of God," words by Daniel, uttered at the most prosperous period of Jewish history. A eulogy on the beautiful city of Jerusalem, at that time the pride of every Jew's heart, a city typical of heaven, the new Jerusalem. The visions of childhood picture heaven literally, with pearly gates, with streets of gold; but with age and more mature thought, a spiritual definition is not sufficient to trace. Yet we always think of heaven as a place, indeed the thought of association, is always based on a place. Curiosity prompts the question "Where is the place?" No man can tell. God has reserved this secret to himself. "I go to prepare a place for you." An eternal dwelling place. "They go in and come out no more forever." The dwelling place of God. Heaven is a place of satisfaction. A place of unlimited knowledge and of wide comprehension; notwithstanding the promises and providences of God, we will know how it was possible for all things to work together for our good. We are apt to look on the wrong side of God's providence; here we have a limited knowledge of each other; there we shall know each other thoroughly. "Know as we are known." Heaven is free from night and sorrow; no tears, no suffering, no death, no hospitals, no asylums, no old people, no cemeteries. Heaven is home; our eternal home, where we may dwell with Christ forever.

REV. EDWARD H. PENCE.

Presbyterian Pastor Told of Some Facts About Pride.

At the Presbyterian church yesterday morning Rev. E. H. Pence talked on "Some Facts About Pride," taking for his text 1 Peter 5:5 and 6.

We scarcely feel the weight of the web this thing we call pride has woven about us. Perhaps we have not realized how precious is the treasure within us which pride seeks to steal away.

God resists the proud. God resists nothing which is like himself. God is both stronger in attraction and repulsion than we are. We may rest assured that there is something wrong in us if we are not attractive to God, and attracted to Him.

Pride may have held you off from becoming a Christian, or if a Christian, from becoming a better one. Pride resists God when it stands as an obstacle to your becoming a Christian. Sometimes we say, I fear I am not strong enough in moral purpose to become a Christian. You may be doubting your own strength in that, but you also doubt God's strength to help you. And we might honor God very much more by trusting Him for strength than by fearing to dishonor him in our weakness. The evening sermon was the fifth in the series on Genesis, the subject being, "The Flood."

The Senior and Junior Christian Endeavor Societies held a very interesting union meeting, led by the Junior superintendent, Miss Fannie Jackson, assisted by the presidents of the Senior and Junior societies.

The nominating committee of the Christian Endeavor Society will meet in the church parlors this evening after teachers' meeting.

PO-TUN-SEAL.

A True Story for the Children.

A tiny three-year-old girl climbed up into her chair at the breakfast table, and after having a napkin pinned about her neck, surveyed the morning repeat critically, and finally said, in a quiet, sturdy way, "I want Po'tunseal." What is it daughter wants?" "Po'tunseal, Po'tunseal," (said with emphasis).

After many conjectures, and recalling the fact that she had been served with a little cup of Postum Cereal Food Coffee the previous morning, it was decided that this was what the little cub wanted, and when it was placed beside her with a little cream and sugar in it, the charming, coy, pleased smile of thanks that dimpled the plump cheeks and chin, and looked out of the violet eyes, would have been thanks enough to a king for the gift of an empire.

If makes our hearts grow strong with the essence of life when we make a little child happy, and especially when when we can give them what they like to eat or drink, with the settled knowledge that pure and nourishing food is being taken into the stomach in an attractive form, to be sure, in Postum, the health coffee, but retaining all the nutrient and fattening qualities of the pure cereals. Made by the Postum Cereal Co., Limited, Battle Creek, Mich.

A LESSON FROM GREECE.

Today's dispatches tell the story of Greek humiliation—the humiliation any nation must risk in standing for high principles without any adequate power.

The Greek situation today is one calculated to elicit the sympathy of all right minded men, however these may condemn—as they must condemn—the short-sightedness and supreme folly that have impelled the Hellenic patriotism forward without preparation or inherent physical force to grapple with a foe of overwhelming military strength, adequate preparation and tactical ability. Heartily as all have sympathized with the cause of Greece and the inspiration that led her to the invasion of Crete, it has been easy to see the inevitable outcome of the struggle ever since the Turkish conspiracy of Miloussa Pass, and it is regretted that tenacity of purpose which, under all the circumstances, has had, and could have, no result other than an unnecessary sacrifice of life and treasure.

Remote as the scene of war has been and unusual as the circumstances, there have been many lessons for the United States. The forcing of operations, once a start was made; the fact that ten days after war was declared the result had been determined, should teach this country the folly of waiting for an hour of need before providing coast defense and naval equipment. In this age of swift battle ships and instantaneous mobilization such a policy can but invite aggression.

This third term talk may be all right, but nothing in Thomas Jefferson's record would seem to teach that a great and successful political party can be organized on the basis of a nine course banquet at $12 a plate.

THE VALLEY OF THE SHADOW.

Mrs. Martha S. Dow.

After years of patient suffering, Mrs. Martha S. Dow died yesterday morning at 11 o'clock, at her home 53 1/2 Dodge street, of neuralgia of the heart, aged fifty-one years. Although her death was sudden, it was not wholly unexpected, as her condition has been considered critical during the past few days.

Mrs. Dow was born in this city and has always resided here. For some years she has been a patient sufferer with rheumatism.

Three sisters, Mrs. J. B. Cassody of Madison, Mrs. E. D. Coe of White-water and Mrs. Anna Hanchett of this city survive.

The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Congregational church and the interment will be in Oak Hill cemetery.

Funeral of George Scofield.

The funeral of George Scofield was held yesterday at one o'clock from the Milton avenue residence. Rev. E. H. Pence, assisted by Rev. Dr. M. G. Hodge, conducted the exercises and the song service was rendered by a quartette composed of Mrs. E. M. Hyzer, Mrs. C. F. Yates, C. N. Vankirk and William Bladon. The attendance was very large, people coming from all sections of the county. The interment was in the cemetery at Edgerton, the cortege being accompanied by over forty teams from this city. The pall bearers were intimate friends of the deceased, being Elmer Langworthy, Spafford Allen, Edward Hubble, Henry Brace, J. Badesy and John Pierson.

Mrs. Fannie Dixon.

Mrs. Fannie Dixon, wife of Charles Dixon, died at the family home in the town of Harmony at 1.15 o'clock yesterday morning, aged sixty-one years, after a long illness with cancer of the stomach. Mrs. Dixon came from Lancashire, England, about ten years ago. She leaves one sister, Mrs. P. Cannon. The funeral will be held from the home at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. John Wells.

Mrs. John Wells died Saturday at midnight, at her home near Footville, the cause of her death being a hemorrhage. She had been sick for the past four years. The funeral will be held from the house tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock.

CHICAGO MARKETS BY WIRE

Chicago, May 10.—[Special]—Mr. Lefebvre has returned from an extensive trip, and submits the following, which it is a pleasure to us to refer to the trade in general. He says: After traveling by rail and horse and buggy over some of the principal states of the winter wheat belt—Missouri, Illinois, Kentucky, Tennessee, Indiana and Ohio—talking with millers and grain buyers and comparing the present condition this year with that of former years, it is my opinion from present prospects we will raise as much wheat as last year. The states of Kentucky and Tennessee which last year raised thirteen million five hundred thousand will raise 18,000,000. Missouri which last year produced 16,500,000 this year will raise nine and half million bushels. The state of Illinois which in a great many of the best producing wheat counties is almost a total failure will not raise more than ten million bushels, while last year it raised twenty-eight million. The state of Ohio is one of the most reliable states to make an estimate on from the fact that the farmers are better situated to take care of a big crop than those of the west. I place the estimate at thirty eight millions while last year it was 315,000,000. The state of Indiana in the northern and central counties of which the wheat fields look very spotted caused by fly and frost damage last fall and winter from present outlook may raise nearly as much as last year. While traveling over some of the principal counties of the northern part of the state and a few of the northwestern counties of Ohio last week I found the Hessian fly and some of them were already flying over the fields. In a few days with warm weather they will deposit their eggs. In less than two weeks if dry and warm the young ones that do the damage, will be hard at work. This may lessen the crop of Indiana and a small portion of Ohio to a considerable extent. I find the stock of wheat in farmers' hands and country elevators is decidedly lighter than it has been for a number of years and the price is from 85 to 98 cents throughout.

After a personal conference with Mr. Lefebvre, I want to make the following statement, namely:

The serious damage is yet to be apprehended in Indiana and parts of Ohio where the fly is. He says that the condition of the crop and the weather are very favorable to such damages, and if the fly has really appeared in Kansas, which we doubt, the same conditions will prevail there. The market advanced in anticipation of the government report and on the large decrease in the visible supply.

Stimulate the Sluggish Kidneys.

In addition to its tonic and cathartic properties, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters exercises a beneficial influence upon the kidneys and bladder, when they are inactive, by stimulating them to renewed exertion, thus removing, as it were, a sluice for the escape of impurities whose regular channel of exit is the organs of urination. Among these are certain abnormal and inflammatory elements, productive of irreparable injury to the system, if not entirely expelled. The kidneys and bladder themselves are also benefited by this stimulus, as their inactivity is usually a preliminary to their disease and disorganization. They also experience, in common with other portions of the system, the potent invigorative effects of the bitters, which furthermore corrects disordered conditions of the stomach, bowels and liver.

CATARRH OF THE STOMACH.

A Pleasant, Simple, But Safe and Effectual Cure for It.

Catarrh of the stomach has long been considered the next thing to incurable. The usual symptoms are a full or bloating sensation after eating, accompanied sometimes with sour or watery risings, a formation of gases, causing pressure on the heart and lungs and difficult breathing; headaches, fickle appetite, nervousness and a general played out, languid feeling.

There is often a foul taste in the mouth, coated tongue and if the interior of the stomach could be seen it would show a shiny, inflamed condition.

The cure for this common and obstinate trouble is found in a treatment which causes the food to be readily, thoroughly digested before it has time to ferment and irritate the delicate mucous surfaces of the stomach. To secure a prompt and healthy digestion is the one necessary thing to do and when normal digestion is secured the catarrhal condition will have disappeared.

According to Dr. Harlanston the safest and best treatment is to use after each meal a tablet, composed of Diastase, Aspartic Pepsin, a little Nux, Golden Seal and fruit acids. These tablets can now be found at all drug stores under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and not being a patent medicine can be used with perfect safety and assurance that healthy appetite and thorough digestion will follow their regular use after meals.

Mr. N. J. Booher, of 2710 Dearborn St., Chicago, Ill., writes: "Catarrh is a local condition resulting from a neglected cold in the head, whereby the lining membrane of the nose becomes inflamed and the poisonous discharge, therefrom passing backward into the throat reaches the stomach, thus producing catarrh of the stomach. Medical authorities prescribed for me for three years for catarrh of stomach without cure, but today I am the happiest of men after using only one box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I cannot find appropriate words to express my good feeling. I have found flesh, appetite and sound rest from their use."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the safest preparation as well as the simplest and most convenient remedy for any form of indigestion, catarrh of stomach, biliousness, sour stomach, heartburn and bloating after meals.

Send for little book, mailed free, on stomach troubles, by addressing Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich. The tablets can be found at all drug stores.

MURDER CASE IS ON
IN CIRCUIT COURTSTEPHEN TERRILL IS BEFORE THE BAR.

He Was Once Convicted of the Charge But Was Granted a New Trial on a Writ of Error—Brought From the Mineral Point Jail This Morning—Now Examining Jurymen.

Another murder case is now being tried before Judge Bennett in the circuit court.

Stephen Terrill, attired in a neat fitting black suit, a winter overcoat, and a felt hat, stepped from the 9:30 o'clock train this morning from Mineral Point.

His arms were not shackled, and leaning on his arm was his mother. She wore heavy mourning and her face plainly showed that she had endured much since that eventful March 17, 1894.

Sheriff John B. Wallis and Deputy Sheriff John J. Mundy were in charge of the prisoner and immediately behind them came Thomas and Piere Quirk, both brothers of the murdered man. Terrill looked pale and sickly and it was plain to be seen that the three years in state's prison had not improved his physical condition.

The party proceeded directly to the court house, and the morning and the greater portion of the afternoon was spent in examining jurymen to try the case.

Was Once in Waukon

Terrill was tried and convicted in the circuit court of Iowa county, of the crime of murder in the first degree upon an information charging him with having killed John Quirk, March 17, 1894. The case was tried before Judge George Clementsen, who sentenced Terrill to state's prison for life.

After sentence Terrill sued out a writ of error and the case was taken to the supreme court and the decision of the lower court was reversed.

The court held that "a charge that if the jury were not convinced that defendant was guilty of murder in the first degree their verdict must be 'not guilty' unless they found defendant guilty of manslaughter in the second, third or fourth degree." The case was therefore sent back for a new trial.

Many Witnesses Here.

District Attorney Levi Pollard and Attorney J. A. Jenks, both of Dodgeville, will conduct the prosecution, while Attorneys C. Spenceley and Chas. McIlhonn of Mineral Point, will defend the prisoner.

Among the witnesses who are now in the city are Thomas and Piere Quirk, brothers of the murdered man, William Toby a colored man, and Morris Misor, William Clark, William Smith and Henry Grace, of Mineral Point. Most of these witnesses were present when the murder took place.

William Jackson of Beloit, who acted as bartender in the saloon in which the murder was committed, is also here, and is considered an important witness.

Terrill is but twenty five years of age, and weighs 175 pounds.

During his stay in this city he will occupy a cell on the south side of the jail, and will have as a companion, Charles Folsom of Clinton, who is charged with arson.

They Work While We Sleep

There are but three organs in the body that work while we sleep, the Heart, the Lungs and the Kidneys. The Heart is the pumping engine. The Lungs furnish the oxygen of combustion. The Kidneys are the sewers. Upon the activity of the Kidneys, depends the purity of the blood.

They are constantly filtering poisons and impurities out of it. If they did not act, the heart would simply be pumping poisons through the channels of the body that would do harm instead of good.

Upon Strong Healthy Kidneys Depends Pure Blood. Pure Blood, Means Perfect Health.

If you would keep your Kidneys healthy and active, take

and the heart and lungs will take care of themselves

The Pills Are Worth Their Weight in Gold. Quick Cure of a Fond du Lac Lady. Where Doctors Failed.

Fond du Lac, Wis., Jan. 11, 1897.

I have been troubled for several years with what some physicians call lumbago, some Bright's disease, but none of the doctors were able to give me any relief. I saw your advertisement in The Daily Reporter of Fond du Lac and went to the Huber Brothers drug store and procured a box of Hobbs' Sparagus Kidney Pills. After using these pills according to directions, I am prepared to say the trouble has entirely left me, and I honestly believe it to be a permanent cure. The pills are worth their weight in gold.

A Special Sale of Large Size Dinner Napkins

$1.49 per Dozen.

We have secured at our own offer 100 dozen of full size DINNER NAPKINS. They are a beautiful quality of the double damask, fine and heavy, and warranted all pure linen. They are as good a Napkin as we ever sold over our counter for $2 50 a dozen, and in the ordinary way would be considered bargains at that price. It is our candid opinion that they cannot be matched in any Janesville store for $2.50, and are quite sure you will agree with us when you see them.

We bought them at about half price and for that reason we shall give our customers---as we always do---the full benefit of our purchase.

There are only 100 dozen of them: ten beautiful patterns of ten dozen each. When they are gone that ends it. Better come at once if in need or going to be in need of Napkins for the next year.

Stop and think! Did you ever buy a large, fine Dinner Napkin at $1.49 a dozen? Your own good judgment must tell you that these are bargains.
